Why are you interested in running for the Council of Chapters and Regions Steering Committee?

Our chapter in San Diego is one of the most active chapters in the U.S. We have a physical office, paid office manager, five (5) active committees and four (4) active working groups. With your support, I'd enthusiastically serve not only our San Diego Chapter but Southern California UNA-USA members as your representative while building on our partnership with UNF.

San Diego Chapter has proven to be collaborative, inclusive moreover successful in reaching across the generational divide in motivating and exciting our community members to engage with us in our pursuit to advocate for the works of the United Nations. To have a seat at the Council would provide first-hand knowledge and input in UNA-USA overall strategic planning that we believe not only is invaluable to our active Chapter and Southern California region moreover mutually beneficial.

What do you anticipate to be your greatest contribution to the Council of Chapters and Regions?

My leadership in our Chapter's continued active involvement with the San Diego community has led to expansive networks beyond the San Diego region. These professional and personal networks will serve as incredible resource to the Council in terms of effective mobilization and engagement in our advocacy for the UN locally and nationally. My proven track record of growing chapter membership, expanding our organization's name recognition throughout the Southern California region is attest to my vision and leadership. Just to name a few examples of my recent national involvements: Steering committee member of first ever PopCulture Anti-Bullying Panel discussion at ComicCon in 2013 (panelist in subsequent years 2014 and coming in 2015); Panelist at inaugural "Dialogue of the Culture of Peace and Non-Violence" with UN Ambassador Anwarul K. Chowdhury at Soka Univeristy in October 2014; Panelist on Anti-Bullying at WonderCon in April 2015; Hosting organization of parallel event during UN's 59th Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) in March 2015; Honorary Guest of Anti-Deformation League (ADL) at Community Seder in March 2015 and various partnerships with local, international organizations (WCCI, Red Cross, IRC)
