A NEW PERSPECTIVE ON SYRIA & THE ROAD TO REBUILDING

Over 4.5 million registered refugees have fled Syria due to the ongoing civil war which has already claimed a quarter of a million lives and displaced 6.5 million people within the country. Why did the conflict arise and how did often-overlooked aspects of society like architecture play a role?

LEIGH ADAMS will moderate a fascinating panel of four Syrian women with a diverse range of experience and connection to the crisis:

GRACE AKRA // M.D. AND THERAPIST
ILHAM AKRA // DENTIST
REEM HAMMAD // ARTIST
SAMA WAREH // EDUCATOR
