Global Goals, Local Leaders

Our featured speaker, Ms. Zephani Smith -- An advocate for social innovation across sectors, Zephani has served in leadership at every level of government working to address current, unresolved issues in civil and human rights. Zephani was elected twice to national boards and appointed to local, state, federal, and international positions. With a Bachelor's Degree in government and a Master's Degree in educational administration and leadership, Zephani is a Coca-Cola and Gates Millennium scholar, with experience in advocacy, partnerships, and opportunity leader, with experience in advocacy, partnerships, and youth engagement. Having lived in Jordan, the United Kingdom, and South Korea, Zephani is a dedicated servant leader with a lifelong commitment to public service.

We will also be honoring local leader Mary Donnelly- Crocker, Executive Director of Young and Healthy at UN Day.

The event is free and open to the public. Please RSVP by sending an email with guests' names to unapasadena@gmail.com by 10/17. Light refreshments will be available.
