

WOMEN, POPULATION, AND THE UNITED NATIONS' MILLENNIUM DEVELOPMENT GOALS

By Jane Roberts on Monday, November the 7th, 2011 at 5: 30 P.M.

The next Redlands Forum features Redlands' very own Jane Roberts, co-founder of 34 Million Friends of the United Nations Population Fund. Jane will talk about the world's population and women's access to education, equality, and human rights. She will share how her experiences in Redlands helped shape and motivate her lifetime of activism.

Jane Roberts has been recognized by Ms. Magazine, Women's eNews, the American Public Health Association, and by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization. She was also recently featured in the international best-seller Half the Sky: Turning Oppression into Opportunity for Women Worldwide, by New York Times columnist Nicholas Kristof and his journalist wife Sheryl Wudunn.

Most programs take place in the Esri Conference Center, 380 New York St., Redlands, CA 92373. Esri campus map [PDF]

Seating is limited, so register now or call 909-748-8011 to ensure your reservation. You can e-mail your questions, or contact the Esri event coordinator at 909-793-2853, ext. 2138.. Sponsors

On the occasion of United Nations' Day, The Inland Empire Chapter of the UNITED NATIONS' ASSOCIATION OF THE United States of America Co-sponsors the above event. For detail contact Ike at 951-552-4629